

This Agreement is the contract of deposit that covers your and our rights and responsibilities concerning Membership and Account(s) offered to you. In this Agreement, the words "you" and "yours" mean those who sign the Member Account Application or for whom membership and/or service requests are approved through the Credit Union's online application and authentication process. The words "we," "us," and "our" mean Priority First Federal Credit Union ("Credit Union"). The word "account" means any one or more accounts you have with the Credit Union. The classification and form of ownership of your accounts are designated on your Member Account Application.

Your account type(s) and ownership features are designated by you on your Member Account Application or through the Credit Union's online application and authentication process. By signing the Member Account Application that is a part of the Agreement, or by establishing and using the account, each of you, jointly and severally, agrees to the terms and conditions in this Agreement, including the Member Account Agreement, Truth-in-Savings Disclosures, Rate Addendum, Fee Schedule, Funds Availability Policy, Electronic Funds Transfer Agreement, Privacy Policy, any account receipt, the Credit Union's bylaws and policies, and any amendments which collectively govern your Membership and Accounts. You agree that additional accounts and services you request in the future will be governed by this Agreement as amended from time to time.

ACCOUNT AGREEMENT

Membership Eligibility. To be eligible for membership in the Credit Union you must be an individual or entity qualifying within the Credit Union's field of membership, must have a valid Social Security Number (SSN) or Tax Identification Number (TIN), and must purchase and maintain at least one share as required by Credit Union Bylaws. You authorize us to check your account, credit, and employment history and obtain a credit report from third parties, including credit reporting agencies, to verify your eligibility for the accounts and services you request.

Individual Accounts. An individual account is an account owned by one depositor, including any individual, corporation, partnership or other organization qualified for Credit Union membership. If the account is an individual account, the interest of a deceased individual owner will pass, subject to applicable law, to the account owner's estate or Payable on Death (POD) beneficiary/payee subject to other provisions of this agreement governing our protection for honoring transfer and withdrawal requests of an owner or owner's agent prior to notice of an owner's death and to any security interest or pledge granted by the account owner and subject to our statutory lien rights.

Joint Accounts. An account owned by two or more persons is a joint account. Additional joint owners are owners on all accounts except IRAs.

Rights of Survivorship. Unless otherwise stated on the Account Card or documented through the Credit Union's online application and authentication process, a joint account includes rights of survivorship. This means that when one (1) owner dies, all sums in the account will pass to the surviving owner(s). For a joint account without rights of survivorship, the deceased owner's interest passes to his or her estate. A surviving owner's interest is subject to the Credit Union's statutory lien for the deceased owner's obligations and to any security interest or pledge granted by a deceased owner, even if a surviving owner did not consent to it.

Rights of Joint Account Owners. Any joint account owner is authorized and deemed to act for the other owner(s) and the Credit Union may accept orders and instructions regarding the account and requests for future services from any other account owner. Each account owner guarantees the signature of the other owners. Any account owner may terminate an account, withdraw all available funds in the account, stop payment on items drawn on an account, withdraw, or pledge all or any part of the funds of any account, including funds representing a membership share, without the consent of the other account owner(s) and the Credit Union shall have no duty to notify any other joint account owner(s). If the Credit Union receives written notice of a dispute between account owners or receives inconsistent instructions from them, the Credit Union may suspend or terminate the account, require a court order to act, or require that all joint account owners agree in writing to any transaction concerning the account.

Joint Account Owner Liability. If any item deposited in a joint account is returned unpaid or an account is overdrawn, or if we do not receive final payment on any transaction, each of the multiple account owners is jointly and severally liable to the Credit Union for the amount of the returned item, overdraft, or unpaid amount, and any charges and transaction, regardless of who created the overdraft, deposited or cashed the item, or benefited from or initiated the transaction. A joint owner shall be responsible for returning any unused checks or access devices from any joint owner removed from the account. If any account owner is indebted to the Credit Union, the Credit Union may enforce its rights against any or all funds in the joint account regardless of who contributed the funds to the joint account.

Payable on Death (POD) Account Designations. A Payable on Death (POD) account is an account held in the name of one (1) or more persons as owner or owners for one or more persons designated as beneficiaries. The account and any balance thereof is subject to the following: a) during your lifetime you may withdraw the money in the account; b) by written direction to the Credit Union, you may change the beneficiary or beneficiaries; and c) upon your death the money remaining in the account will belong to the beneficiary or beneficiaries, and the money will not be inherited by your heirs or be controlled by your will. Any POD beneficiary designation shall not apply to Individual Retirement Accounts (IRAs). If there is more than one (1) surviving beneficiary/payee, the account is owned jointly by such beneficiaries/payees without rights of survivorship upon the death of the last account owner. We are not obligated to notify any beneficiary of the existence of any account or the vesting of a beneficiary's interest in any account, except as otherwise provided by law. This paragraph does not apply to an account held on behalf of or held in the name of a trust.

Accounts for Minors. For any account established by or for a minor, the Credit Union reserves the right to require the minor account owner to have his or her Social Security Number (SSN) or Tax Identification Number (TIN) and to have a parental joint account owner who is at least eighteen (18) years of age, who shall be jointly and severally liable to the Credit Union for any returned item, overdraft, or unpaid charges or amounts on such account. For a joint account, all funds in the account shall be owned as a joint account with rights of survivorship. The Credit Union may make payments of funds directly to the minor without regard to his or her minority. The Credit Union has no duty to inquire of the use or purpose of any transaction by the minor or joint account owner. The Credit Union will not honor any transaction request by a parent or guardian who is not a joint account owner. The minor account owner's Social Security Number (SSN) or Tax Identification Number (TIN) must be shown on the account. We will not change the account status when the minor reaches the age of majority unless the change is authorized in writing by all account owners.

Uniform Transfers/Gifts to Minors Account (UTMA/UGMA). A Uniform Transfers/Gifts to Minors Account is an individual account created by a custodian who deposits funds as an irrevocable gift to a minor. The minor to whom the gift is made is the beneficiary of the custodial property in the account. The custodian has possession and control of the account for the exclusive right and benefit of the minor and, barring a court order otherwise, is the only party entitled to make deposits, withdrawals, or close the account. We have no duty to inquire about the use or purpose of any transaction. If the custodian dies, we may suspend the account until we receive instructions from any person authorized by law to withdraw funds or a court order authorizing withdrawal.

Agency Designation on Account. An agency designation on an account is an instruction to us that the owner authorizes another person to make transactions as agent for the account owner regarding the accounts designated. An agent has no ownership interest in the account(s) or Credit Union voting rights. We have no duty to inquire about the use or purpose of any transaction made by the agent.

TRUTH-IN-SAVINGS ACCOUNT DISCLOSURES

THE FOLLOWING DISCLOSURES CONTAIN IMPORTANT INFORMATION AND THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF ANY ACCOUNT OR ACCOUNTS THAT YOU MAY HAVE WITH US AND ARE PROVIDED AS REQUIRED BY THE TRUTH-IN-SAVINGS ACT. WHEREVER USED, "APY" MEANS ANNUAL PERCENTAGE YIELD.

Except as specifically described, the following disclosures apply to all of the accounts. All accounts described in this Truth-in-Savings Disclosure are Savings accounts.

Membership. As a condition of membership, you must purchase and maintain the minimum required share(s) as set forth below.

Par Value of One Share	$5.00
Number of Shares Required	1

SHARE ("SAVINGS") AND SHARE DRAFT ("CHECKING") ACCOUNTS

Rate Information. The annual percentage yield is a percentage rate that reflects the total amount of dividends to be paid on an account based on the dividend rate and frequency of compounding for an annual period.

For Savings, Christmas, Vacation, and IRA Savings accounts, the dividend rate and annual percentage yield may change quarterly as determined by the Credit Union's Board of Directors. The dividend rates and annual percentage yields are the rates and yield as of the last dividend declaration date, which is set forth in the Rate Schedule.

- ❖ Savings Accounts are Tiered Rate accounts. See the "Rate Addendum and Schedule of Fees and Charges" for Tiered Rate balance information. Once a particular range is met, the Dividend Rate and Annual Percentage Yield for that balance range will apply to the full balance of your account.

Nature of dividends. Dividends are paid from current income and available earnings, after required transfers to reserves at the end of a dividend period.

Dividend Compounding and Crediting. The compounding and crediting frequency of dividends are stated in the Rate Schedule.

Dividend Period. The dividend period applicable to each account is set forth in the Rate Schedule. The dividend period is the period of time at the end of which an account earns dividend credit. The dividend period begins on the first calendar day of the period and ends on the last calendar day of the period.

Accrual of Dividends. For all earning accounts, dividends will begin to accrue on noncash deposits (e.g. checks) on the business day you make the deposit to your account.

- ❖ For Savings, Christmas, Vacation, and IRA Savings accounts, if you close your account before accrued dividends are credited, you will not receive the accrued dividends.

Balance Information. To open any account, you must deposit or already have on deposit at least the par value of one full share in a Savings account. Some accounts may have additional minimum opening deposit requirements. The minimum balance requirements applicable to each account are stated in the Rate Schedule.

For Regular, Christmas, Vacation, and IRA Savings accounts, there is a minimum daily balance required to obtain the annual percentage yield for the dividend period. If the minimum daily balance is not met, you will not earn the stated annual percentage yield.

Balance Computation Method. Dividends are calculated by applying a daily periodic rate to the balance in the account each day.

Account Limitations. For Christmas accounts, the entire balance will be transferred to another account of yours on or after September 30th and the account will remain open. For Checking accounts, no account limitations apply.

Fees for Overdrawing Accounts. Fees may be imposed on each check, item, ATM card withdrawal, debit card point of purchase (if member has consented to Courtesy Pay Plus plan for ATM & one-time debit card transactions), preauthorized automatic debit, telephone initiated withdrawal or any other electronic withdrawal or transfer transaction that is drawn on an insufficient available account balance. The entire balance in your account may not be available for withdrawal, transfer or paying a check, or item. Certain transactions such as debit card preauthorization holds and deposited check holds can impact the available balance on your account. You may consult the Funds Availability Policy Disclosure for information regarding the availability of funds in your account. Fees for overdrawing your account may be imposed for each overdraft, regardless of whether we pay or return the check, item or transaction. If we have approved an overdraft protection limit for your account, such fees may reduce your approved limit. Please refer to the Fee Schedule for current fee information.

For ATM and one-time debit card transactions, you must consent to the Credit Union's Courtesy Pay Plus plan in order for the transaction amount to be covered under the plan. Without your consent, the Credit Union may not authorize and pay an overdraft resulting from these types of transactions. Services and fees for overdrafts are shown in the document the Credit Union uses to capture the member's opt-in choice for overdraft protection and the Rate Addendum, Truth in Savings Disclosures and Schedule of Fees and Charges.

SHARE CERTIFICATE ACCOUNTS

The rates and terms applicable to your account at the Credit Union are provided in this Truth-in-Savings Disclosure and the Rate Schedule. Applicable fees are covered in the Fee Schedule. Except as specifically described, the following disclosures apply to all Share Certificate and IRA Share Certificate Accounts.

Rate Information. The annual percentage yield is a percentage rate that reflects the total amount of dividends to be paid on an account based on the dividend rate and frequency compounding for an annual period. For Share Certificate accounts, the dividend rate and annual percentage yield are fixed and will be in effect for the term of the account. For accounts subject to dividend compounding, the annual percentage yield is based on an assumption that dividends will remain on deposit until maturity. A withdrawal of dividends will reduce earnings.

Dividend Period. For each account, the dividend period is the account's term. The dividend period begins on the first day of the term and ends on the maturity date.

Dividend Compounding and Crediting. The compounding and crediting frequency of dividends are stated in the Rate Schedule.

Balance Information. The minimum balance requirements applicable to each account are set forth in the Rate Schedule. To open any account, you must deposit or already have on deposit at least the par value of one (1) full share in any account. Dividends are calculated by the daily balance method which applies a daily periodic rate to the principal in the account each day.

Accrual of Dividends. Dividends will begin to accrue on noncash deposits (e.g. checks) on the business day you make the deposit to your account. If you close your account before accrued dividends are credited, accrued dividends will not be paid.

Transaction Limitations. After your account is opened you may make withdrawals subject to the early withdrawal penalties stated below.

Maturity. Your account will mature as indicated on this Truth-in-Savings Disclosure or on your Account Receipt or Renewal Notice.

Early Withdrawal Penalty. We may impose a penalty if you withdraw any of the principal before the maturity date.

Amount of Penalty. The amount of the early withdrawal penalty is based on the term of your account. The penalty schedule is as follows:

- ❖ Terms of 6 months 60 days' dividends
- ❖ Terms of 12 months 90 days' dividends
- ❖ Terms of 24 & 36 months 180 days' dividends
- ❖ Terms of 60 months 270 days' dividends

How the Penalty Works. The penalty is calculated as a forfeiture of part of the dividends that have been or would be earned on the account. It applies whether or not the dividends have been earned. In other words, if the account has not yet earned enough dividends or if the dividend has already been paid, the penalty will be deducted from the principal.

Exceptions to Early Withdrawal Penalties. At our option, we may pay the account before maturity without imposing an early withdrawal penalty under the following circumstances:

- When an account owner dies or is determined legally incompetent by a court or other body of competent jurisdiction.
- Where the account is an Individual Retirement Account (IRA) and any portion is paid within seven (7) days after establishment; or where the account is a Keogh Plan (Keogh) provided that the depositor forfeits an amount of at least equal to the simple dividends earned in the amount withdrawn; or where the account is an IRA or Keogh and the owner attains age 59½ or becomes disabled.

Renewal Policy. The renewal policy for your accounts is indicated in the Rate Schedule. For Share Certificate accounts, your account will automatically renew for another term upon maturity. You have a grace period of five (5) days after maturity in which to withdraw funds in the account without being charged an early withdrawal penalty.

Nontransferable/Nonnegotiable. Your account is nontransferable and nonnegotiable. The funds in your account may not be pledged to secure any obligation of an owner, except obligations with the Credit Union.

DEPOSITS

Deposit Requirements. Funds may be deposited to any account in any manner approved by the Credit Union in accordance with the requirements set forth in the Rate Addendum, Truth in Savings Disclosures and Schedule of Fees and Charges. All accounts are non-assignable and nonnegotiable to third parties. Certificate accounts are governed by the terms of this Agreement, the terms of the Rate Addendum, Truth in Savings Disclosures and Schedule of Fees and Charges, and the terms and disclosures on your certificate account receipt for each account, which is incorporated herein by this reference.

Endorsements. You authorize the Credit Union, at its discretion, to accept transfers, checks and other items for deposit into any of your accounts, whether or not they are endorsed by all payees. You authorize the Credit Union to supply missing endorsements if the Credit Union chooses to supply such endorsements. The Credit Union reserves the right to verify all endorsements on checks presented for deposit, either in person or by comparison with member signature files. If insurance, government, and certain other checks require an endorsement as set forth on the back of the check, the Credit Union may require endorsement as set forth on the check. Endorsements must be placed in the space on the back of the check between the top edge and one and a half inches from the top edge. The Credit Union may accept checks with endorsements outside this space. However, if any such endorsements or other markings you or any prior endorser make on the check cause any delay or error in processing the item for payment, you will be responsible for any loss incurred by the Credit Union due to the delay or error. If a check or item that is payable to two (2) or more persons is ambiguous as to whether it is payable to either or both, we may process the check or item as though it is payable to either person.

Restrictive Legends. Some checks contain restrictive legends or similar limitations on the front of the item. Some examples of restrictive legends include "two signatures required", "void after 60 days" or "not valid over $500.00." We are not liable for payment of any check contrary to a restrictive legend or other limitation contained in or on the item unless we have specifically agreed in writing to the restrictions or limitations.

Collection of Items. The Credit Union shall not be responsible for deposits made by mail or at an un-staffed facility until the Credit Union actually receives them. In handling items for deposit or collection, the Credit Union only acts as your agent and assumes no responsibility beyond the exercise of ordinary care. The Credit Union will not be liable for default or negligence of any correspondent or for loss in transit, and each correspondent will only be liable for its own negligence. The Credit Union reserves the right to send any item for collection.

Final Payment. All items or Automated Clearing House (ACH) transfers credited to your account are provisional and subject to our receipt of final payment. If final payment is not received, we reserve the right to charge your account for the amount of those items or ACH transfers and impose a return charge on your account. After we have received final payment, we refer to these deposits as collected items. If the Credit Union incurs any fee to collect any item, the Credit Union may charge such a fee to your account. The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse or to return all or any item or funds transfer. The Credit Union shall have the right to charge back against your account all previously deposited items or other items endorsed by you that are returned to the Credit Union unpaid, regardless of whether the amount of the item has been available for your use.

Direct Deposits. The Credit Union may offer direct deposit options allowing you to preauthorize deposits (i.e. payroll checks, Social Security or retirement checks, or other government checks) or preauthorize transfers from other accounts at the Credit Union. You must authorize any direct deposits or preauthorized transfers by a separate authorization. If applicable, you must notify the Credit Union at least thirty (30) days prior to any direct deposit or preauthorized transfer if you wish to cancel or change the direct deposit or direct transfer option. If your account is overdrawn, you authorize us to deduct the amount your account is overdrawn from any deposit including government payments or benefits. Upon filing of bankruptcy, if you fail to cancel any direct deposit authorization, you instruct your employer and the Credit Union to make and apply direct deposits in accordance with your authorization on file with the Credit Union. If the Credit Union is required to reimburse the U.S. government for any benefit payment directly deposited into your account for any reason, you agree the Credit Union may deduct the amount returned from any of your accounts, unless prohibited by law.

Crediting of Deposits. Deposits made on non-business days will be credited to your account on the next business day. Deposits received at un-staffed facilities such as night depositories and automated teller machines (ATMs) will be credited on the day funds are removed and processed by the Credit Union. You waive any notice of nonpayment, dishonor, or protest regarding any items purchased or received by the Credit Union for credit to your account or for collection.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Inactive and Abandoned Accounts. If your account falls below any applicable minimum balance and you have not made any transactions over a period specified in the Truth-in-Savings Disclosure or Schedule of Fees and Charges, we may classify your account as inactive or dormant. Unless prohibited by applicable law, we may charge a service fee, as set forth in the Truth-in-Savings Disclosure or Schedule of Fees and Charges, for processing your inactive account. If we impose a fee, we will notify you, as required by law, at your last known address. You authorize us to transfer funds from another account of yours to cover any service fees, if applicable. To the extent allowed by law, we reserve the right to transfer the account funds to an account payable and to suspend any further account statements. If a deposit or withdrawal has not been made on the account and we have had no other sufficient contact with you within the period specified by state law, the account will be presumed to be abandoned. Funds in abandoned accounts will be reported and remitted in accordance with state law. Once funds have been turned over to the state, we have no further liability to you for such funds, and if you choose to reclaim such funds, you must apply to the appropriate state agency.

Death of Account Owner. The Credit Union may require the survivor or other claimant to the account to produce certain documents before releasing the funds in the account. You agree that the Credit Union can require anyone who claims funds in your account after your death to indemnify the Credit Union for any losses resulting from honoring that claim. The Credit Union may continue to honor all transfers, withdrawals, deposits, and other transactions on the account once the Credit Union learns of an account owner's death. Once we know of a member's death, we may pay checks or honor other payments or transfer orders authorized by the deceased member for a period of ten (10) days after that date unless we receive instructions from any person claiming an interest in the account to stop payment on the checks or other items. This agreement will be binding upon any heirs or legal representatives of any account owner. We reserve the right to require the consent of all owners to terminate a joint account.

Termination of Account. The Credit Union may terminate your account at any time without notice to you or may require you to close your account and apply for a new account if (1) there is a change in owners or authorized signers; (2) there has been a forgery or fraud reported or committed involving your account; (3) there is a dispute as to the ownership of the funds in the account; (4) any account checks are lost or stolen; (5) there are excessive returned unpaid items not covered by an overdraft protection plan; (6) any owner or authorized user causes the Credit Union to suffer a loss; (7) we reasonably deem it necessary to prevent a loss to us or if there has been any misrepresentation or any other abuse of any of your accounts. Your account removal or termination will not affect your responsibility for any loan obligations or prior transactions. The Credit Union is not responsible for payment of any check, withdrawal, or other item once your account is terminated; however, if the Credit Union pays a check or other item after termination, you agree to reimburse the Credit Union for payment. We reserve the right to require the consent of all owners to terminate a joint account.

Termination of Membership. You may terminate your membership at the Credit Union after giving written notice of your intent to withdraw or by withdrawing your minimum required membership share, if any, and closing all of your accounts. You may be expelled if there has been any misrepresentation or any other abuse on any of your other accounts or if you fail to comply with the Credit Union policies, procedures, or bylaws, conduct yourself in a threatening or abusive manner to Credit Union personnel, or willfully damage Credit Union property. You may be denied service or expelled from membership for any reason allowed by applicable law, including causing a loss to the Credit Union or violating any terms of membership. If you are expelled you may not be a joint account owner on another account.

Special Account Instructions. You may request the Credit Union facilitate certain will, or court-ordered account arrangements. However, because the Credit Union does not give legal advice, we cannot counsel you as to which account arrangement most appropriately meets the specific requirements of your will, or court order. If you ask the Credit Union to follow instructions that the Credit Union believes might expose it to claims, suits, lawsuits, expenses, liabilities, or damages, whether directly or indirectly, the Credit Union may refuse to follow your instructions or may require you to post a bond to indemnify the Credit Union. Account changes requested by you, or any account owner, must be evidenced by a signed Membership Application and accepted by the Credit Union.

Your Consent To Receive Calls. You agree if you provide or have provided any telephone number, including a wireless telephone (cell phone), or email address on your Member Account Application, other Credit Union form, or verbally, you are giving your consent to the Credit Union and/or our third-party providers, including debt collectors, to contact you by telephone, cell phone (voice or text message) which could result in charges to you, or email address associated with your account in order to service your account, deliver any messages related to suspected or actual fraudulent activity on your account, or collect any amounts owed to us, excluding any contacts for advertising and telemarketing purposes as prescribed by law. You understand if we contact you at any telephone number, cell phone (voice or text), or email address you have provided, you agree that we may contact you whether these numbers are dialed manually or by means of an automatic telephone dialing system, or whether we use a pre-recorded message. You understand and agree that you are not required to consent to telephonic contact as a condition of purchasing any property, goods or service (including loans).

If you have provided a wireless telephone number(s) on or in connection with any account, you represent and agree you are the wireless subscriber or customary user with respect to the wireless telephone number(s) provided and have the authority to give this consent. Furthermore, you agree to notify us of any change to the wireless telephone number(s) which you have provided to us.

You may withdraw your consent at any time by contacting the credit union by phone, in person or any other reasonable means and informing us of your preferences.

Severability. In the event that any paragraph of this Agreement or any portion thereof is held by a court to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the other paragraphs and portions of this Agreement shall not be invalid or unenforceable and will continue in full force and effect. All headings are intended for reference only and are not to be construed as part of the Agreement.

Enforcement. You agree to be liable to the Credit Union for any liability, loss, or expense as provided in this Agreement that the Credit Union incurs as a result of any dispute involving your accounts or services or your failure to follow this Agreement. You authorize the Credit Union to deduct any such liability, loss, or expense from your account without prior notice to you. In the event either party brings legal action to enforce the Agreement or collect any overdrawn funds on accounts assessed under this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled, subject to applicable law, to payment by the other party of its reasonable attorney fees and costs, including fees on any appeal, bankruptcy proceedings, and any post-judgment collection actions, if applicable.

Unlawful Internet Gambling/Regulation GG. You agree that you will not use any of your accounts, access devices or services for unlawful internet gambling transactions or other illegal activities. Pursuant to the Unlawful Internet Gambling Enforcement Act of 2006 and Regulation GG, "restricted transactions" such as those in which a person accepts credit, funds, instruments or other proceeds from another person in connection with unlawful Internet gambling, are prohibited. The Credit Union will not open accounts involved in this type of activity. However, as required by law, we monitor all account activity, and will restrict any transactions connected with unlawful Internet gambling. If unlawful Internet gambling activity is detected, the account may be restricted or closed.

Negative Information Notice. We may report information about your loan, Savings or deposit accounts to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your accounts may be reflected in your credit report.

Governing Law. This Agreement is governed by the Credit Union's bylaws, federal laws and regulations, the laws, including applicable principles of contract law, and regulations of the state in which the Credit Union's main office is located, and local clearinghouse rules, as amended from time to time. As permitted by applicable law, you agree that any legal action regarding this Agreement shall be brought in the county in which the Credit Union is located.

ACCOUNT ACCESS

Authorized Signature. Your signature on the Membership Application authorizes your account access. We will not be liable for refusing to honor any item or instruction if we believe the signature is not genuine. If you have authorized the use of a facsimile signature, we may honor any check that appears to bear your facsimile signature even if it was made by an unauthorized person. You authorize us to honor transactions initiated by a third person to whom you have given your account number even if you do not authorize a particular transaction.

Access Options. You may withdraw or transfer funds from your account(s) in any manner we permit (e.g., at an automated teller machine, in person, by mail, internet access, automatic transfer, or telephone, as applicable). We may return as unpaid any check drawn on a form we do not provide, and you are responsible for any loss we incur handling such a check. We have the right to review and approve any form of power of attorney and may restrict account withdrawals or transfers. We are under no obligation to honor any power of attorney.

ACH and Wire Transfers. Except as amended by this Agreement, electronic funds transfers we permit that are subject to Article 4A of the Uniform Commercial Code will be subject to such provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code as enacted by the state where the main office of the Credit Union is located. We may execute certain requests for electronic funds transfers by Fedwire. Fedwire transactions are subject to Federal Reserve Board Regulation J. You may order electronic funds transfers to or from your account. We will debit your account for the amount of an electronic funds transfer and will charge your account for any fees related to the transfer. Unless we agree otherwise in writing, we reserve the right to refuse to execute any order to transfer funds to or from your account. We are not obligated to execute any order to transfer funds out of your account if the amount of the requested transfer plus applicable fees exceeds the available funds in your account. Certain transactions such as debit card preauthorization holds and deposited check holds can impact the available balance on your account. We are not liable for errors, delays, interruptions or transmission failures caused by third parties or circumstances beyond our control including mechanical, electronic or equipment failure. We will not provide you with next day notice of ACH, wire transfers and other electronic payments credited to your account.

You will receive notice of such credits on your account statements. You may contact us to determine whether a payment has been received. If we fail to properly execute a payment order, and such action results in a delay in payment to you, we will pay you dividends or interest for the period of delay as required by applicable law. The dividends or interest paid to you will be based on the lowest nominal dividend or interest rate we were paying on any account during that period. Payment orders we accept will be executed within a reasonable time of receipt but may not necessarily be executed on the date they are received. Cut-off times may apply to the receipt, execution and processing of funds transfers, payment orders, cancellations, and amendments and, if received after a cut-off time, may be treated as having been received on the next following funds transfer business day. Information about any cut-off times is available upon request. From time to time, we may need to suspend processing of a transaction for greater scrutiny or verification in accordance with applicable law, and this action may affect settlement or availability of the transaction. When you initiate a wire transfer, you may identify the recipient and any financial institution by name and by account or identifying number. The Credit Union and any other financial institutions facilitating the transfer may rely strictly on the account or identifying number even if the number identifies a different person or financial institution. Any account owner may amend or cancel a payment order even if that person did not initiate the order. We may refuse requests to amend or cancel a payment order that we believe will expose the Credit Union to liability or loss. Any request to amend or cancel a payment order that we accept will be processed within a reasonable time after it is received. You agree to hold us harmless from and indemnify us for all losses and expenses resulting from any actual or attempted amendment or cancellation of a payment order. We may require you to follow a security procedure to execute a payment order or certain electronic funds transfer transactions. If we permit you to establish a different security procedure, you agree that procedure is a commercially reasonable method of verifying electronic funds transfers.

If we permit you to establish a different security procedure, you agree that procedure is a commercially reasonable method of verifying electronic funds transfers. If we conduct a remittance transfer(s) on your behalf acting as a remittance transfer provider, such transactions will be governed by 12 C.F.R. part 1005, subpart B-Requirements for remittance transfers. A "remittance transfer" is an electronic transfer of funds of more than $15.00 which is requested by a sender and sent to a designated recipient in a foreign country by a remittance transfer provider. Terms applicable to such transactions may vary from those disclosed herein and will be disclosed to you at the time such services are requested and rendered in accordance with applicable law.

Remotely Created Checks. For purposes of this paragraph, "account" means a transaction account, credit account, and any other account on which checks may be drawn. A remotely created check is a check created by someone other than the person on whose account the check is drawn. A remotely created check is generally created by a third party payee as authorized by the owner of the account on which the check is drawn. Authorization is usually made over the telephone or through on-line communication. The owner of the account does not sign a remotely created check. In place of the owner's signature, the remotely created check usually bears a statement that the owner authorized the check or bears the owner's printed or typed name. If you authorize a third party to draw a remotely created check against your account, you may not later revoke your authorization. It is your responsibility to resolve any authorization issues directly with the third party. We are not required to credit your account and may charge against your account any remotely created check for which the third party has proof of your authorization.

Certificate Accounts. Any term Share Certificate allowed by state law is subject to the terms of this agreement and Certificate Account Receipt for each account, the terms of which are incorporated herein by reference.

Credit Union Examination. The Credit Union may disregard information on any check other than the signature of the drawer and amount of the item and any magnetic encoded information. You agree that the Credit Union does not fail to exercise ordinary care in paying an item solely because its procedures do not provide for sight examination of items.

TRANSACTION LIMITATIONS

Withdrawal Restrictions. The Credit Union will permit a withdrawal only if you have sufficient available funds in your account to cover the full amount of the withdrawal or have an established overdraft protection plan. Certain transactions such as debit card preauthorization holds and deposited check holds can impact the available balance on your account. Checks, transfers or other payment orders that are drawn against insufficient available funds may be subject to a service charge up to the amount set forth in the Rate Addendum, Truth in Savings Disclosures and Schedule of Fees and Charges. If there are sufficient available funds to cover some but not all of your withdrawal orders, the Credit Union may allow those withdrawals for which there are sufficient available funds in any order at the Credit Union's discretion.

The Credit Union may also refuse to allow a withdrawal in other cases. For example, any dispute between the owners about the account (unless a court has ordered the Credit Union to allow the withdrawal); a legal garnishment or attachment is served; the account secures an obligation to the Credit Union; any required documentation has not been presented; or you fail to repay a Credit Union loan on time. You may be advised of the reasons for refusal if such action is taken. The Credit Union reserves the right to require members to give notice in writing of any intended withdrawals from any account (except checking accounts) of no less than seven (7) days and up to sixty (60) days, as required by law, before such withdrawal.

Transfer Limitations. We may limit the dollar amount or the number of transfers from your account. Please consult your Truth-in-Savings Disclosure or your Electronic Fund Transfers Agreement and Disclosure.

OVERDRAFT/COURTESY PAY

Overdraft Liability. If on any day, the available funds in your Checking account are not sufficient to cover checks and other items posted to your account, those checks and items will be handled in accordance with our overdraft procedures. The Credit Union's determination of an insufficient available account balance may be made at any time between presentation and the Credit Union's processing deadline with only one review of the account required. The Credit Union has no duty to notify you of an insufficient funds item. The Credit Union may charge an insufficient funds (NSF) fee for an item whether paid or returned as set forth in the Schedule of Fees. We may charge you an NSF fee each time an item is submitted to us for payment from your account when at the time of presentment your account does not have sufficient available funds or when we return, reverse, or decline to pay an item for any other reason authorized by the terms and conditions governing your account. Except as otherwise agreed to in writing, the Credit Union, by covering one or any overdraft, does not agree to cover overdrafts in the future and may discontinue covering overdrafts at any time. If the Credit Union pays an item that would otherwise overdraw your account, you agree to pay the overdraft amount immediately. We reserve the right to pursue collection of previously dishonored items at any time, including giving a payor bank extra time beyond any processing deadline limits.

Courtesy Pay

Courtesy Pay is a non-contractual, discretionary, service of paying overdrafts. It is not a loan. Courtesy Pay protects your financial standing and provides a measure of protection against human error. Courtesy Pay is an overdraft program offered by the Credit Union in addition to our other types of overdraft protection (i.e. overdraft tied to a Savings account or an overdraft line of credit). Courtesy Pay is available only on personal Checking Accounts. All members who meet the following criteria are automatically enrolled in Courtesy Pay:

- 1) Account is in "good standing", defined as an account that has not caused a loss to the Credit Union;
- 2) Checking accounts opened a minimum of 90 days;
- 3) No excessive NSF activity; and
- 4) No fraudulent transactions completed/attempted by you

An overdraft occurs when you present a check, pre-authorized ACH, electronic transfer, or returned item for payment, and the payment of the item results in a negative available account balance. Automatic transfers from previously set up and approved overdraft protection account(s) (Savings account and/or overdraft line-of-credit) take precedence and will be processed prior to overdrawing a checking account with our Courtesy Pay service.

Guidelines for Courtesy Pay

- 1) Courtesy Pay costs nothing unless it is used to pay checks, ACH debits, recurring debit card transactions, Online Bill Pay payments, or any other payment or withdrawal request for more than is on deposit in the account. It allows the Credit Union to pay an overdraft transaction from a Checking Account instead of declining the transaction or returning the check unpaid.
- 2) Courtesy Pay will only be activated when funds available through other overdraft arrangements have been exhausted.
- 3) No additional paperwork is required to participate in the Courtesy Pay for coverage on checks, automatic payments, or ACH transactions (including "recurring" debit card transactions) and no fees are applied to your account unless the service is used.
- 4) You are required to OPT-IN by signing a separate Courtesy Pay Plus Consent form ONLY IF you want the Credit Union to authorize and pay overdrafts for ATM and one-time or non-recurring debit card transaction.
- 5) You may also OPT-OUT of Courtesy Pay at any time by notifying the Credit Union. If you opt-out of Courtesy Pay entirely, overdrawn items will be returned unpaid and you will be charged a Non-Sufficient Funds fee (NSF) for each item returned.
- 6) With Courtesy Pay, you will be allowed to temporarily overdraft your checking account up to a maximum of $500, excluding any fees.
- 7) You must bring your account to a positive balance within 30 days from the date of the overdraft.
- 8) Payment of an overdraft may be refused at any time even though we may have previously paid the overdrafts. If we do not authorize and pay an overdraft, your transaction will be declined and you may be charged a fee if you do not have another overdraft protection account.
- 9) Payment of overdrafts is discretionary. For example, payment will not be made if your account is not in "good standing", if you have too many overdrafts.
- 10) If we pay an overdraft on an account with more than one (1) owner on the signature card, each owner drawing/presenting the item that creates the overdraft are jointly and severally liable for such overdrafts plus applicable fees.
- 11) Transactions post in random order as we receive them so we encourage you to keep careful records and practice good account management. This will help you avoid writing checks without sufficient funds and incurring the resulting fees.
- 12) You must show financial responsibility with your Credit Union checking account (or previous checking account at another financial institution as reported through credit and check reporting services).
- 13) The Credit Union may limit the number of accounts eligible for Courtesy Pay to one per household.

Fees for Courtesy Pay

- 1) You will be charged a Non-Sufficient Funds (NSF) fee only when funds available through other overdraft protection have been exhausted. Please refer to the Rate Addendum and Schedule of Fees and Charges and Courtesy Pay Plus Authorization for current fee information.
- 2) You may also be charged additional fees by the merchant/payee.
- 3) There is no limit on the total fees we can charge you for overdrawing your account.

Notification of Overdraft and Repayment of Courtesy Pay

- 1) We are under no obligation to notify you before we pay or return an item.
- 2) Each monthly statement will summarize the total amount of Courtesy Pay fees assessed for each month as well the year-to-date total of fees.
- 3) Repayment of the entire overdrawn balance including fees will be required immediately or at least within 30 days of the date of the overdraft.
- 4) If a negative balance is created as a result of using Courtesy Pay, you are responsible for repaying the funds to Credit Union.
- 5) The amount of any Courtesy Pay overdraft, plus applicable fees, is due and payable on demand.
- 6) If you have Direct Deposit, repayment of funds will automatically be taken out of your next Direct Deposit and will require no action on your part.

Courtesy Pay Exclusions (including, but not limited to)

- 1) You voluntarily opt-out of Courtesy Pay.
- 2) You exceed the $500 maximum limit.
- 3) Your account remains in the negative for 30 days, Courtesy Pay will be disabled.
- 4) You become over 30 days delinquent on any Credit Union loan.

- 5) You stop making regular deposits to your checking account.
- 6) Fraud, forgery, or abuse is discovered involving any Credit Union account.
- 7) Kiting is suspected between your Credit Union checking account and other similar accounts within or outside the Credit Union.
- 8) You are in violation of any Credit Union policy or procedure.
- 9) You cause a loss to the Credit Union and/or we charge-off a loan balance.
- 10) You file bankruptcy or become insolvent.
- 11) The Credit Union feels you are abusing the account.
- 12) Collection efforts will begin on any account that is not brought to a positive balance within 30 days of the date of the overdraft.

Understanding Your Account Balance. Your Checking account has two kinds of balances: the actual balance and the available balance.

- ❖ Actual Balance – Your actual balance reflects the full amount of all deposits to your account as well as payment transactions that have been posted to your account. It does not reflect checks you have written and are still outstanding or transactions that have been authorized but are still pending.
- ❖ Available Balance – Your available balance is your actual balance less: (1) holds placed on deposits; (2) holds on debit card or other transactions that have been authorized but are not yet posted; and (3) any other holds, such as holds related to pledges of account funds, minimum balance requirements, or to comply with court orders.

We use your available balance to determine whether there are sufficient funds in your account to pay items, including checks, as well as ACH, debit card and other electronic transactions. Pending transactions and holds placed on your account may reduce your available balance and may cause your account to become overdrawn regardless of your actual balance. You should assume that any item which would overdraw your account based on your available balance may create an overdraft. You may check your available balance online, by using MATT, at an ATM, by visiting a branch or by calling us.

For Example: Let's assume your actual and available balance are both $100, and you use your debit card at a restaurant to pay your $20 bill. A hold is placed on your account for $20, so your available balance is only $80. Your actual balance is still $100.

Before the restaurant charge is sent to the Credit Union for processing, a check that you wrote for $90 is presented for payment. Since you only have $80 available (you have committed to pay the restaurant $20), your account will now be overdrawn by $10, even though your actual balance is $100:

$$100.00 \text{ (balance)} - $20.00 \text{ (debit)} - $90.00 \text{ (check)} = -\10.00

In this case, we may pay the $90 check, but you will be charged an overdraft fee according to our current Rate and Fee Schedule. That fee will be deducted from your account and your resulting balance will now be negative $38.00:

$$100.00 \text{ (balance)} - $20.00 \text{ (debit)} - $90.00 \text{ (check)} - $28.00 \text{ (fee)} = -$38.00$

IT IS VERY IMPORTANT TO UNDERSTAND THAT YOU CAN STILL OVERDRAW YOUR ACCOUNT EVEN THOUGH THE AVAILABLE OR ACTUAL BALANCE APPEARS TO SHOW THAT THERE ARE SUFFICIENT FUNDS TO COVER A TRANSACTION THAT YOU INTEND TO MAKE. As explained above, your available balance may not reflect all of your authorized outstanding transactions (e.g. outstanding checks and automatic bill payments) that have not been paid from your account. In the example, the outstanding check will not be reflected in your available balance until it is presented to us and paid from your account.

In addition, your available balance may not reflect all of your debit card transactions. For example, if a merchant obtains our prior authorization but does not submit a one-time debit card transaction for payment within three (3) business days of authorization (or up to thirty (30) business days for certain types of debit card transactions), we must release the authorization hold on the transaction. The available balance will not reflect this transaction once the hold has been released until the transaction has been received by the Credit Union and paid from your account.

How Transactions are Posted to Your Account. There are two types of transactions that affect your account: credits (deposits of money into your account) and debits (payments out of your account). It is important to understand how each is applied to your account so that you know how much money you have and how much is available to you at any given time. This section explains generally how and when we post transactions to your account.

- ❖ Credits. Deposits are generally added to your account when we receive them. However, in some cases when you deposit a check, the full amount of the deposit may not be available to you at the time of deposit. Please refer to the Funds Availability Policy Disclosure for details regarding the timing and availability of funds from deposits.

- ❖ Debits. There are several types of debit transactions. Common debit transactions are generally described below. Keep in mind that there are many ways transactions are presented for payment by merchants, and we are not necessarily in control of when transactions are received.
- ❖ Checks. When you write a check, it is processed through the Federal Reserve System. We receive data files of cashed checks from the Federal Reserve each day. The checks drawn on your account are compiled from these data files and paid each day. We process the payments in the order contained in the data file.
- ❖ ACH Payments. We receive data files every day from the Federal Reserve with Automated Clearing House (ACH) transactions. These include, for example, automatic bill payments you have authorized. ACH transactions for your account are posted throughout the day.
- ❖ PIN-Based Debit Card Purchase Transactions. These are purchase transactions using your debit card for which a merchant may require you to enter your personal identification number (PIN) at the time of sale. They are processed through a PIN debit network. These transactions are similar to ATM withdrawal transactions because the money is usually deducted from your account immediately at the time of the transaction. However, depending on the merchant, a PIN-based transaction may not be immediately presented for payment.
- ❖ Signature-Based Debit Card Purchase Transactions. These are purchase transactions using your debit card that are processed through a signature-based network. Rather than entering a PIN, you typically sign for the purchase; however, merchants may not require your signature for certain transactions. Merchants may seek authorization for these types of transactions. The authorization request places a hold on funds in your account when the authorization is completed. The "authorization hold" will reduce your available balance by the amount authorized but will not affect your actual balance. The transaction is subsequently processed by the merchant and submitted to us for payment. This can happen hours or sometimes days after the transaction, depending on the merchant and its payment processor. These payment requests are received in real time throughout the day and are posted to your account when they are received.

The amount of an authorization hold may differ from the actual payment because the final transaction amount may not yet be known to the merchant when you present your card for payment. For example, if you use your debit card at a restaurant, a hold will be placed in an amount equal to the bill presented to you; but when the transaction posts, it will include any tip that you may have added to the bill. This may also be the case where you present your debit card for payment at gas stations, hotels and certain other retail establishments. We cannot control how much a merchant asks us to authorize, or when a merchant submits a transaction for payment.

This is a general description of certain types of transactions. These practices may change, and we reserve the right to pay items in any order we choose as permitted by law. We may receive multiple deposit and withdrawal transactions on your account in many different forms throughout each business day. This means that you may be charged more than one overdraft fee if we pay multiple transactions when your account is overdrawn.

For ATM and one-time debit transactions, you must consent to the Credit Union's Courtesy Pay Plus plan in order for the transaction amount to be covered under the plan. Without your consent, the Credit Union may not authorize and pay an overdraft resulting from these types of transactions. Services and fees for overdrafts are shown in the Rate Addendum, Truth in Savings Disclosures and Schedule of Fees and Charges.

Returned Item/Non-Sufficient Funds (NSF) Fees. The Credit Union may return a check or debit transaction (e.g., ACH payments) submitted for payment against your checking or Savings account if the amount of the check or debit exceeds the available balance in your checking or Savings account. Each time we return a check or debit for insufficient funds, we will assess NSF fees in the amount shown on the Credit Union's current Schedule of Fees and Charges for each returned check or debit item. If the merchant that submitted the initial check or debit submits the same item again, after it is rejected the first time, then we may reject it again and charge another NSF fee resulting in another NSF fee for the same item.

The Credit Union has no control over the number of times a merchant may resubmit the same check or debit transaction to us for payment and you will be charged multiple NSF fees in connection with a single check or debit transaction that has been returned for insufficient funds multiple times. There is no limit on the total NSF fees we can charge you for each item presented.

Minimizing Fees. The best way to know the amount of available balance you have and to avoid paying overdraft or returned item fees is to record and track all of your transactions closely, including pre-authorization commitments, outstanding checks, ACH debits, internet bill payments, online and mobile banking transfers, restrictions on deposits (or returned deposits) and any other items that may reduce your available balance.

Order of Payments. Checks, transactions and other items may not be processed in the order that you make them or in the order that we receive them. We may, at our discretion, pay a check or item and execute other transactions on your account in any order we choose. The order in which we process checks and execute other transactions on your account may affect the total amount of overdraft fees that may be charged to your account. Please contact us if you have questions about how we pay checks and process transfers and withdrawals.

Postdated and Stale dated Items. You authorize us to accept and pay any check, even if the check is presented for payment before its date. You also agree not to deposit checks or other items before they are properly payable. The Credit Union is under no obligation to you to pay a check drawn on your account that is presented more than six (6) months after its date.

STOP PAYMENT ORDERS

Stop Payment Request. You may ask the Credit Union to stop payment on any check drawn upon your checking account. You must request a stop payment in writing. The stop payment will be effective if the Credit Union receives the order in time for the Credit Union to act upon the order and you state the number of the account, date, and number of the check and its exact amount. If you give the Credit Union incorrect or incomplete information, the Credit Union will not be responsible for failing to stop payment on the item. If the stop payment order is not received in time for the Credit Union to act upon the order, the Credit Union will not be liable to you or to any other party for payment of the item. If we re-credit your account after paying a check over a valid and timely stop payment order, you agree to sign a statement describing the dispute with the payee, to transfer all of your rights against the payee or other holders of the check to the Credit Union, and to assist the Credit Union in legal action taken against the person.

Duration of Order. You may make an oral stop payment order, which will lapse within fourteen (14) calendar days unless continued in writing within that time. A written stop payment order will be effective for 6 months. A written stop payment order may be renewed in writing from time to time. The Credit Union is not obligated to notify you when a stop payment order expires.

Liability. The Credit Union may charge a fee for each stop payment order requested, as set forth in the Rate Addendum, Truth in Savings Disclosures and Schedule of Fees and Charges. Fees for stop payment orders are set forth in the Rate Addendum, Truth in Savings Disclosures and Schedule of Fees and Charges. Although payment of an item may be stopped, you may remain liable to any item holder, including us. You agree to indemnify and hold the Credit Union harmless from all costs, including attorney's fees, damages, or claims related to our refusing payment of an item, including claims of any joint account owner, payee, or endorsee in failing to stop payment of an item as a result of incorrect information provided by you.

Lost Items. The Credit Union, in receiving items from you for withdrawal or deposit, acts only as your agent and reserves the right to reverse the credit for any deposited items or to charge your account for the items, should they become lost in the collection process.

Credit Union's Liability for Errors. If the Credit Union does not properly complete a transaction according to this Agreement, the Credit Union will be liable for your losses or damages not to exceed the amount of the transaction, except as otherwise provided by law. The Credit Union will not be liable if: (a) through no fault of the Credit Union, your account does not contain enough money to make the transaction; (b) circumstances beyond the Credit Union's control prevent the transaction; (c) your loss is caused by your negligence or the negligence of another financial institution; or (d) the money in your account is subject to a legal process or other claim. The Credit Union will not be liable for consequential damages except liability for wrongful dishonor. The Credit Union's actions will constitute the exercise of ordinary care if such actions or non-actions are consistent with applicable state law, Federal Reserve regulations and operating letters, clearing house rules, and general banking practices followed in the area serviced by the Credit Union. You grant the Credit Union the right, in making payments of deposited funds, to rely on the form of the account and the terms of this Account Agreement. Any conflict between oral representations by you or Credit Union employees and any written form will be resolved by reference to this Agreement and applicable written form.

Checks Presented for Payment in Person. We may refuse to accept any check drawn on your account that is presented for payment in person. Such refusal shall not constitute a wrongful dishonor of the check and we shall have no liability for refusing payment.

Credit Union Lien and Security Interest. To the extent you owe the Credit Union money, now or in the future, as a borrower, guarantor, endorser, or otherwise, the Credit Union has a lien on any or all the funds in any account in which you have an ownership interest at the Credit Union, regardless of the source of the funds. The Credit Union may apply these funds in any order to pay off your indebtedness. If the Credit Union chooses not to enforce its lien, the Credit Union does not waive its right to enforce the lien at a later time. In addition, you grant the Credit Union a consensual security interest in your accounts and agree the Credit Union may use the funds from your accounts to pay any debt or amount owed the Credit Union, except obligations secured by your dwelling, unless prohibited by applicable law. All accounts are non-transferable to third parties. All accounts may not be assigned without our prior written consent. The statutory lien and your pledge do not apply to any Individual Retirement Account or any other account that would lose special tax treatment under state or federal law if given as security.

Legal Process. If any legal action, such as a levy, garnishment, or attachment, is brought against your account, the Credit Union may pay out funds according to the terms of the action or refuse to pay out any money from your account until the dispute is resolved. If the Credit Union incurs any expenses or attorney fees in responding to legal process, such expenses may be charged against your account without prior notice to you, unless prohibited by law. Any legal process against your account is subject to the Credit Union's lien and security interest.

Account Information. Upon your request, the Credit Union will inform you of the name and address of each credit reporting agency from which the Credit Union obtains a report in connection with your account. The Credit Union agrees not to disclose information to third parties about your account regarding any transaction or balances except as set forth in the privacy policy.

NOTICES

Name or Address Changes. It is your responsibility to notify the Credit Union of a change in mailing or physical address, change of email address or change of name. The Credit Union is only required to attempt to communicate with you at the most recent address you have provided to the Credit Union. If the Credit Union attempts to locate you, the Credit Union may impose a service fee as set forth on the Rate Addendum, Truth in Savings Disclosures and Schedule of Fees and Charges.

Notice of Amendments. Except as otherwise prohibited by applicable law, the terms of this Agreement are subject to change at any time. The Credit Union will notify you of any changes in account terms, rates, or fees as required by law. Changes in account ownership, such as adding or removing a joint account owner, must be evidenced in writing. The Credit Union reserves the right to waive any term in this Agreement. Any such waiver shall not affect the Credit Union's right to enforce any right in the future.

Effect of Notice. Any written notice you give the Credit Union is effective when it is actually received by the Credit Union. Any written notice the Credit Union gives to you is effective when it is deposited in the U.S. mail, postage prepaid, and addressed to you at your statement mailing address. Notice to any one account owner is considered notice to all owners of the account. The Credit Union reserves the right to accept oral instructions, and you agree to hold the Credit Union harmless from any liability arising as a result of such instructions.

Electronic Notices. If you have agreed to receive notices electronically we may send you notices electronically and discontinue mailing paper notices to you until you notify us that you wish to reinstate receiving paper notices.

Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) and Backup Withholding. If your account is or becomes subject to backup withholding, the Credit Union is required by law to withhold and pay the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) a required percentage of payments of dividends, and certain other payments under certain conditions. Your failure to furnish a correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) or meet other applicable requirements may result in backup withholding as well as civil or criminal penalties. If you refuse to provide your TIN, the Credit Union may suspend the opening of your account.

STATEMENTS

Contents. If the Credit Union provides a statement for your account, you will receive a periodic statement of all transactions and activity on your account during the statement period. If a periodic statement is provided, you agree that only one statement is necessary for a multiple party account. For checking accounts, you understand that when paid, your original check becomes property of the Credit Union. Copies will be retained by the Credit Union and made available upon your request and subject to the fee set forth in the Rate Addendum, Truth in Savings Disclosures and Schedule of Fees and Charges.

Examination. You are responsible for promptly examining each statement upon receiving it and reporting any irregularities to us. If you fail to report any irregularities such as forged, altered, unauthorized, unsigned, or otherwise fraudulent items drawn on your account, erroneous payments or transactions, or other discrepancies reflected on your statement within thirty-three (33) days of the date we sent the statement to you, we will not be responsible for your loss. We also will not be liable for any items that are forged or altered in a manner not detectable by a reasonable person, including the unauthorized use of a facsimile signature machine.

Notice to Credit Union. You agree that the Credit Union's retention of checks does not alter or waive your responsibility to examine your statements or the time limit for notifying us of any errors. The statement will be considered correct for all purposes, and we will not be liable for any payment made or charged to your account unless you notify us in writing within the above time limit for notifying us of any errors. If you fail to receive a periodic statement, you agree to notify us within fourteen (14) days of the time you regularly receive a statement.

Electronic Statements. If you choose to sign-up for Electronic Statements, the Credit Union will no longer be providing you with a monthly and/or quarterly paper statement. Your statements will be available via our Internet Banking site on or around the 5th business day of the month. You will be notified through your e-mail address on file that your E-statement is available. If you change your e-mail address, it is your responsibility to notify us of your new address as soon as possible to avoid delays in receiving your E-Statement notification.

In order to receive a notification that your E-statement is available, you must provide an accurate, active e-mail address. To access your E-Statements, you must log in to Internet Banking, using your secure user ID and password.

FUNDS AVAILABILITY POLICY DISCLOSURE

THIS DISCLOSURE DESCRIBES YOUR ABILITY TO WITHDRAW FUNDS AT THE CREDIT UNION. YOU SHOULD ALSO REFER TO THE SECTION OF THESE AGREEMENTS AND DISCLOSURES THAT DESCRIBES THE DETAILS OF YOUR SPECIFIC ACCOUNT TYPE FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION.

General Policy. Our policy is to make funds from your cash and check deposits available to you on the same business day that we receive your deposit. Electronic direct deposits will be available on the day we receive the deposit. Once they are available, you can withdraw the funds in cash and we will use the funds to pay checks that you have written. For determining the availability of your deposits, every day is a business day, except Saturdays, Sundays, and federal holidays. We have different deposit cut-off hours for different deposit locations. The earliest cut-off time that might apply is 1:00 p.m. If you make a deposit before our cut-off hour on a business day that we are open, we will consider that day to be the day of your deposit. However, if you make a deposit after our cut-off hour or on a day that we are not open, we will consider that the deposit was made on the next business day we are open. Our cut-off hours are available at the Credit Union.

Reservation Of Right To Hold. In some cases, we will not make all of the funds that you deposit by check available to you on the same business day that we receive your deposit. Funds may not be available until the second business day after the day of your deposit. However, the first $275.00 of your deposit will be available on the first business day after the day of your deposit. If we are not going to make all the funds from your deposit available on the same business day, we will notify you at the time you make your deposit. We will also tell you when the funds will be available. If your deposit is not made directly to one of our employees, or if we decide to take this action after you have left the premises, we will mail you the notice by the next business day after we receive your deposit. If you will need the funds from a deposit right away, you should ask when the funds will be available.

Holds On Other Funds. If we cash a check for you that is drawn on another financial institution, we may withhold the availability of a corresponding amount of funds that are already in your account. Those funds will be available at the time funds from the check we cashed would have been available if you had deposited it. If we accept for deposit a check that is drawn on another financial institution, we may make funds from the deposit available for withdrawal immediately but delay your availability to withdraw a corresponding amount of funds that you have on deposit in another account with us. The funds in the other account would then not be available for withdrawal until the time periods that are described elsewhere in this disclosure for the type of check that you deposited.

Longer Delays May Apply. We may delay your ability to withdraw funds deposited by check into your account an additional number of days for these reasons:

- ❖ We believe a check you deposit will not be paid.
- ❖ You deposit checks totaling more than $6,725.00 on any one (1) day.
- ❖ You deposit a check that has been returned unpaid.
- ❖ You have overdrawn your account repeatedly in the last six (6) months.
- ❖ There is an emergency, such as failure of communications or computer equipment.

We will notify you if we delay your ability to withdraw funds for any of these reasons and we will tell you when the funds will be available. They will generally be available no later than the seventh business day after the day of your deposit.

Special Rules for New Accounts. If you are a new member, the following special rules will apply during the first 30 days your account is open.

Funds from cash deposits and electronic direct deposits to your account will be available on the day we receive the deposit. Funds from deposits of wire transfers, and the first $6,725.00 of a day's total deposits of cashier's, certified, teller's, traveler's, and federal, state, and local government checks will be available on the next business day after the day of your deposit if the deposit meets certain conditions. For example, the checks must be payable to you. The excess over $6,725.00 will be available on the seventh business day after the day of your deposit. If your deposit of these checks (other than a U.S. Treasury check) is not made in person at a branch, the first $6,725.00 will not be available until the second business day after the day of your deposit. Funds from all other check deposits will be available on the seventh business day after the day of your deposit.

Deposits at Non-Proprietary ATMs. Funds from any deposits (cash or checks) made at automated teller machines (ATMs) we do not own or operate will not be available until the fifth business day after the date of your deposit. This rule does not apply at ATM's that we own or operate. All ATM's that we own or operate are identified as our machines.

ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFER AGREEMENT

THIS IS YOUR ELECTRONIC SERVICES AGREEMENT AND DISCLOSURE. IT INCLUDES NECESSARY FEDERAL STATEMENTS AS REQUIRED BY THE ELECTRONIC FUND TRANSFER ACT (15 U.S.C. SECTION 1693 ET SEQ) AND REGULATION E (12 CFR 205 ET SEQ).

Electronic Funds transfers are electronically initiated transfers of money from your account through the electronic funds transfer services described below. By signing an application or account card for EFT services, each of you, jointly and severally, agree to the terms and conditions in this Agreement and any amendments for the EFT services offered.

Furthermore, electronic fund transfers that meet the definition of remittance transfers are governed by 12 C.F.R. part 1005, subpart B—Requirements for Remittance Transfers, and consequently, terms of this agreement may vary for those types of transactions. A "remittance transfer" is an electronic transfer of funds of more than $15.00 which is requested by a sender and sent to a designated recipient in a foreign country by a remittance transfer provider. Terms applicable to such transactions may vary from those disclosed herein and will be disclosed to you at the time such services are requested and rendered in accordance with applicable law.

EFT Services. If approved, you may conduct any one or more of the EFT services offered by the Credit Union.

Debit Card. If approved, you may use your card to purchase goods and services from participating merchants. If you wish to pay for goods or services over the Internet, you may be required to provide card number security information before you will be permitted to complete the transaction. You agree that you will not use your card for any transaction that is illegal under applicable federal, state, or local law. Funds to cover your card purchases will be deducted from your Savings and Checking account. For one-time debit card transactions, you must consent to the Credit Union's Courtesy Pay Plus plan in order for the transaction amount to be covered under the plan. Without your consent, the Credit Union may not authorize and pay an overdraft resulting from these types of transactions. Services and fees for overdrafts are shown in the document the Credit Union uses to capture the member's opt-in choice for overdraft protection and the Rate Addendum, Truth in Savings Disclosures and Schedule of Fees and Charges.

For other types of transactions, if the balance in your account is not sufficient to pay the transaction amount, the Credit Union may pay the amount and treat the transaction as a request to transfer funds from other deposit accounts or approved overdraft protection accounts that you have established with the Credit Union. If you initiate a transaction that overdraws your account, you agree to make immediate payment of any overdrafts together with any service charges to the Credit Union. In the event of repeated overdrafts, the Credit Union may terminate all services under this Agreement. You may use your card and personal identification number (PIN) in ATMs of the Credit Union, PLUS, Cirrus, VISA, MasterCard and such other machines or facilities as the Credit Union may designate.

At the present time, you may use your card to:

- ❖ Make deposits to your Savings and Checking accounts.
- ❖ Withdraw available funds from your Savings and Checking accounts.
- ❖ Transfer available funds from your Savings and Checking accounts.
- ❖ Obtain balance information for your Savings and Checking accounts.
- ❖ Make POS (Point-of-Sale) transactions with your card and PIN (Personal Identification Number) to purchase goods or services at POS terminals that the Credit Union designates.

The following limitations on ATM and POS transactions may apply:

- ❖ The daily limit for ATM withdrawals is $500 and for POS transactions the daily limit is $1,500, for a total of $2,000 per day. Reduced limits may apply to your account based on your credit worthiness.
- ❖ Purchase amounts are limited to the amount in your account.
- ❖ You may transfer up to the available balance in your account at the time of the transfer.
- ❖ See "transfer limitations" that may apply to these transactions.

ATM Only Card. Eligible to members who do not have a checking account. If approved, you may use your ATM Only Card and personal identification number (PIN) in automated teller machines (ATMs) of the Credit Union and such other machines or facilities as the Credit Union may designate.

At the present time, you may use your ATM Only Card to:

- ❖ Make deposits to your Savings accounts.
- ❖ Withdraw available funds from your Savings accounts.
- ❖ Transfer available funds from your Savings accounts.
- ❖ Obtain balance information for your Savings accounts.

The following limitations on ATM transactions may apply:

- ❖ The daily limit for ATM withdrawals is $500 per day.
- ❖ You may transfer up to the available balance in your account at the time of the transfer.
- ❖ See "transfer limitations" that may apply to these transactions.

Because of the servicing schedule and processing time required in ATM operations, there may be a delay between the time a deposit (either cash or check) is made and when it will be available for withdrawal.

MATT (Member Automated Telephone Teller) (Audio Response). If we approve MATT for your accounts, a separate Personal Identification Number (PIN) will be assigned to you. You must use your PIN along with your account number to access your accounts. At the present time, you may use Audio Response to:

- ❖ Withdraw available funds from your Savings and Checking accounts.
- ❖ Transfer available funds from your Savings and Checking accounts.
- ❖ Obtain balance information for your Savings and Checking accounts.
- ❖ Make loan payments from your Savings and Checking accounts
- ❖ Determine if a particular item has cleared.
- ❖ Obtain tax information on amounts earned on Savings and Checking accounts or interest paid on loan accounts.
- ❖ Verify the last date and amount of your payroll deposit.
- ❖ Verify the last five (5) checks that have cleared your account.
- ❖ Verify the last five (5) deposits to your account.

Your accounts can be accessed under Audio Response via a touch-tone telephone only. Audio Response service will be available for your convenience 24 hours per day. This service may be interrupted for a short time each day for data processing.

The following limitations on MATT transactions may apply:

- ❖ There is no limit to the number of inquiries, transfers, or withdrawal requests you may make in any one (1) day.
- ❖ See "transfer limitations" that may apply to these transactions.

The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse any transaction which would draw upon insufficient funds, exceed a credit limit, lower an account below a required balance, or otherwise require us to increase our required reserve on the account. All checks are payable to you as a primary member and will be mailed to your address of record. The Credit Union may set other limits on the amount of any transaction, and you will be notified of those limits. The Credit Union may refuse to honor any transaction for which you do not have sufficient available verified funds. The service will discontinue if no transaction is entered after numerous unsuccessful attempts to enter a transaction and there may be limits on the duration of each telephone call.

Preauthorized EFTs.

- ❖ Direct Deposit. Upon instruction of (i) your employer, (ii) the Treasury Department or (iii) other financial institutions, the Credit Union will accept direct deposits of your paycheck or federal recurring payments, such as Social Security, to your Savings and checking account.
- ❖ Preauthorized Debits. Upon instruction, we will pay certain recurring transactions from your Savings and checking accounts.
- ❖ Stop Payment Rights. If you have arranged in advance to make electronic fund transfers out of your account(s) for money you owe others, you may stop payment on preauthorized transfers from your account. You must notify us orally or in writing at any time up to three (3) business days before the scheduled date of the transfer. We may require written confirmation of the stop payment order to be made within 14 days of any oral notification. If we do not receive the written confirmation, the oral stop payment order shall cease to be binding 14 days after it has been made. A stop payment request for preauthorized Electronic Fund Transfers will apply to all subsequent transfers, unless you withdraw the request.
- ❖ Notice of Varying Amounts. If these regular payments may vary in amount, the person you are going to pay is required to tell you, ten (10) days before each payment, when it will be made and how much it will be. You may choose instead to get this notice only when the payment would differ by more than a certain amount from the previous payment or when the amount would fall outside certain limits that you set.
- ❖ Liability for Failure to Stop Payment of Preauthorized Transfers. If you order us to stop payment of a preauthorized transfer three (3) business days or more before the transfer is scheduled and we do not do so, we will be liable for your losses or damages.

Electronic Check Conversion/Electronic Returned Check Fees. If you pay for something with a check you may authorize your check to be converted to an electronic fund transfer. You may also authorize merchants to electronically debit your account for returned check fees. You are considered to have authorized these electronic funds transfers if you complete the transaction after being told (orally or by a notice posted or sent to you) that the transfer may be processed electronically or if you sign a written authorization.

CONDITIONS OF EFT SERVICES

Ownership of Cards. Any Card or other device which we supply to you is our property and must be returned to us, or to any person whom we authorize to act as our agent, or to any person who is authorized to honor the Card, immediately according to instructions. The Card may be cancelled at any time at our sole discretion without demand or notice. You cannot transfer your Card or account to another person.

Honoring the Card. Neither we nor merchants authorized to honor the Card will be responsible for the failure or refusal to honor the Card or any other device we supply to you. If a merchant agrees to give you a refund or adjustment, you agree to accept a credit to your account in lieu of a cash refund.

Foreign Transactions. Foreign transactions are limited and not available worldwide. We are not blocking all foreign transactions, but our process may block some countries based on risk. If you plan to visit or make a transaction outside the United States, please contact the Credit Union for a list of available countries where your card can be used.

Purchases and cash withdrawals made in foreign currencies will be debited from your account in U.S. dollars. The exchange rate used to convert foreign currency transactions to U.S. dollars is either a government-mandated exchange rate or a wholesale exchange rate is selected by VISA. The rate VISA uses for a particular transaction is the rate VISA selects for the applicable currency on the day the transaction is processed. This rate may differ from the rate applicable on the date the transaction occurred or was posted to your account.

A fee of up to 1.00% will be charged on all transactions completed outside of the United States where the cardholder's country code differs from the merchant's country code. In addition, a fee of up to 1.00% will be charged on all transactions completed in a foreign currency. All fees are calculated based on the transaction amount after it is converted to U.S. dollars. These fees are charged except where excluded.

A foreign transaction is any transaction that you complete or a merchant completes on your card outside of the United States with no regard to the physical location of your card. This includes, but not limited to, ordering goods or services online or any other mobile device or App within the United States to a merchant located outside the United States with the exception of U.S. military bases and U.S. territories.

Security of Access Code. You may use one (1) or more access codes with your electronic fund transfers. The access codes issued to you are for your security purposes. Any access codes issued to you are confidential and should not be disclosed to third parties or recorded on or with the card. You are responsible for safekeeping your access codes. You agree not to disclose or otherwise make your access codes available to anyone not authorized to sign on your accounts. If you authorize anyone to use your access codes, that authority shall continue until you specifically revoke such authority by notifying the Credit Union. You understand that any joint owner you authorize to use an access code may withdraw or transfer funds from any of your accounts. If you fail to maintain the security of these access codes and the Credit Union suffers a loss, we may terminate your EFT services immediately.

Joint Accounts. If any of your accounts accessed under this Agreement are joint accounts, all joint owners, including any authorized users, shall be bound by this Agreement and, alone and together, shall be responsible for all EFT transactions to or from any Savings and checking or loan accounts as provided in this Agreement. Each joint account owner, without the consent of any other account owner, may, and hereby is authorized by every other joint account owner to, make any transaction permitted under this Agreement. Each joint account owner is authorized to act for the other account owners, and the Credit Union may accept orders and instructions regarding any EFT transaction on any account from any joint account owner.

Fees and Charges. There are certain charges for electronic funds transfer services. From time to time, the charges may be changed. We will notify you of any changes as required by applicable law. If you use an ATM not operated by us, you may be charged a fee by the ATM operator and by any national, regional, or local network used in processing the transaction (and you may be charged a fee for a balance inquiry even if you do not complete a fund transfer). The ATM surcharge will be debited from your account if you elect to complete the transaction or continue with the balance inquiry.

Refer to the separate Credit Union's Fee Schedule for current fees

Member Liability. You are responsible for all EFT transactions you authorize. If you permit someone else to use an EFT service, your card or your access code, you are responsible for any transactions they authorize or conduct on any of your accounts.

TELL US AT ONCE if you believe your card or access code has been lost or stolen, if you believe someone has used your card or access code or otherwise accessed your accounts without your authority, or if you believe that an electronic fund transfer has been made without your permission using information from your check. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. You could lose all the money in your account (plus your maximum line of credit).

You are not liable for an unauthorized VISA debit card transaction that was not conducted at an ATM if you can demonstrate that you exercised reasonable care in protecting your Card from loss or theft, you have not reported two or more incidents of unauthorized use in the past twelve (12) months, and your account is in good standing. Otherwise your liability for an unauthorized VISA debit card transaction that was not conducted at an ATM will be no more than $50.00.

For all other EFT transactions involving access devices, including transactions conducted at ATM's, your liability for unauthorized transactions is determined as follows. If you tell us within two (2) business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your Card or code, you can lose no more than $50.00 if someone used your Card or code without your permission. If you do NOT tell us within two (2) business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your Card or code, and we can prove that we could have stopped someone from using your Card or code without your permission had you told us, you could lose as much as $500.00.

Also, if your statement shows transfers that you did not make including those made by card, access code or other means, TELL US AT ONCE. If you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was mailed or electronically sent to you, you may not get back any money lost after the 60 days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from making the transfers if you had told us in time. If a good reason (such as a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods.
